

Kinetic Leadership Consulting & Services

Capabilities Statement

Core Competencies: (BLUF) The Kinetic Leadership Model cultivates launch-and-leave leaders by equipping them with the sensemaking awareness of Leadspace® leadership. The Leadspace® leadership course teaches a new and refreshing approach to leadership development for those seeking an in-depth understanding of effective leadership and “how” to be a better leader, today.

Latest in Leadership Research: Leadspace® leadership awareness was created from the research study ‘Leadership in Defense Support of Civil Authorities - A Qualitative Exploratory Study’, discovering a new grounded theory of leadership derived from ~100 years of executive leadership experience during natural disasters.

The ‘Interdisciplinary Theory of DSCA Leadership’ empowers the community of leaders - both military and civilian - to action dynamic capabilities.

Leadspace® Leadership - new leadership concept that observes the sensemaking of leadership awareness, or more importantly, shows ‘how’ to build a leader’s awareness.

Leadspace® Leadership - focuses on the interconnectedness of supporting and supported disciplines in leader and leadership development.

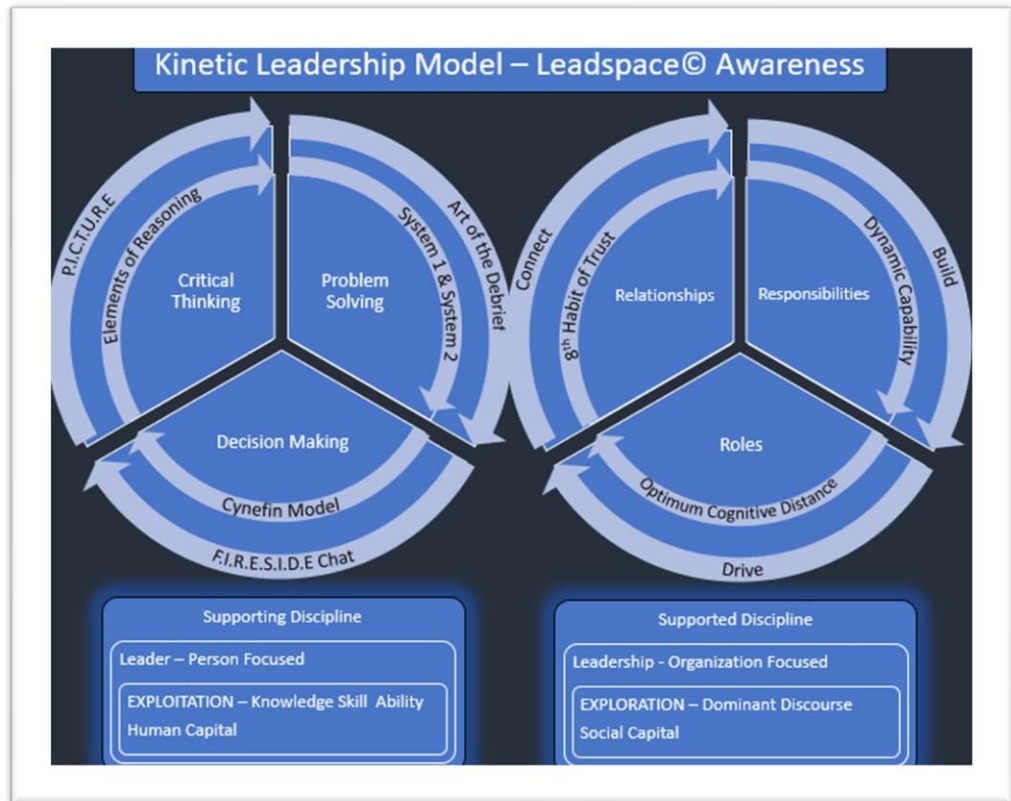

THINK of developing launch-and-leave leaders who possess heightened situational awareness as your organization’s leadership effectiveness weapons for winning.

Leadspace® Leadership course:

- Develops Leadspace® aware leaders
- Maximizes dynamic capabilities
- Teaches ‘How’ to be a better leader
- Better equips one to tackle challenges

Differentiators:

- Developing a Leadspace® leadership perspective better prepares your organization to action dynamic capabilities
- Leadspace® leadership utilizes an ACT/FACT/IMPACT methodology to focus on components of effective leadership
- Leadspace® leadership sessions develop expert-level leadspace leaders with a building block approach to be impactful
- Leadspace® leadership is more than academics - developing one’s Leadspace® mindset is a game-changer for your organization
